

Reservations and Event Requirements for using Wayne Ferguson Plaza

Wayne Ferguson Plaza is a 1.5-acre urban park and community gathering space located in the heart of Old Town Lewisville. The plaza is across the street from Lewisville City Hall and the Lewisville Grand Theater (a 40,000-square-foot public arts center) and is adjacent to the historic Main Street commercial district.

Reservations for using Wayne Ferguson Plaza for small groups or gatherings of less than 20 people are not required, per city-ordinance.

Reservations and special event permits are required for groups of 20 or more people, but no rental fees for use of only park space will be assessed. Special event permits and requirements may have applicable fees, costs and additional requirements, depending on scope of the event. After a reservation for plaza use has been requested (form available here) through the Lewisville Grand Theater and the date is confirmed as available, a special event permit must be applied for. Special event permit applications can be submitted here. Applications must be submitted more than 30 days from an event.

Activation and use of the stage in Wayne Ferguson Plaza require a reservation of the plaza, applicable special event permits and a stage activation package to be purchased.
